When Tammy Swearingen won her 500th career match as the head coach of the Westminster College volleyball team in 2015 she became one of only 12 active NCAA Division III volleyball coaches to reach the milestone. She is also the all-time winnigest coach in one sport in Titan history.

Swearingen completed her 25th season as head coach in 2017, including her 21st season serving as Westminster's assistant director of athletics. In 2017, Westminster won the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championship, the school's second ECAC title, and concluded the season with a 30-6 record, becoming only the third team in school history to win at least 30 matches in a single season.

Swearingen boasts a career record of 552-325 (.634), including 16 seasons with 20 or more wins and a trio of 30-win seasons. The Titans have won three Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) titles under Swearingen since becoming eligible for the league crown in 2002.

Swearingen was named PAC Coach of the Year for three straight years from 2006-08 while guiding Westminster to back-to-back PAC titles and the school's first two automatic bids to the NCAA Division III Tournament in 2007 and 2008. In 1997, she was named Regional Coach of the Year. Swearingen has coached two All-Americans: Heidi Jorgensen in 1994 and Janie Celuba in 1995. The Titans also won the Division II ECAC Championship in 2001. In 2014, Swearingen was named on American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Board of Directors as the Division III representative.

CAMP STAFF: Volleyball camp is staffed with Westminster College volleyball coaches, area high school head coaches, and current as well as former Titan players. The Titan Staff can come to your high school/junior high school for a team camp. Contact us to learn more.
