2018 TITAN BASKETBALL TEAM SHOOTOUT

Friday, June 1 - Saturday, June 2

WESTMINSTER COLLEGE
CAMP DIRECTOR

KEVIN SIROKI (’93) entered his sixth season as the head coach of the Titan men’s basketball team for the 2017-18 season.

This past season, the Titans finished the campaign 19-9, the program’s most wins since the 2000-01 season. Westminster made it to the Presidents’ Athletic Conference (PAC) Championship Tournament Semifinals for the second time in three seasons. The Titans also qualified for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championship Tournament for the second-straight year.

Siroki has coached nine All-PAC honorees and nine PAC Academic Honor Roll recipients. He has coached five 1,000-point scorers, including Jarret Vrabel and Deontay Scott who both accomplished this feat during the 2017-18 season.

Before Westminster, Siroki was the athletic director and the head men’s basketball coach at Galen University in Belize, Central America. Siroki, the team MVP as a senior and three-time letterwinner at point guard for the Titans in 1990-93, helped Westminster to a 78-29 record during his four years as an undergraduate.

CAMP ASSISTANT

CHIVAS WHIPPLE entered his fourth season as assistant coach for the Westminster men’s basketball team for the 2017-18 season.

Whipple has brought a wealth of experience to the coaching staff with an impressive playing and coaching background. Whipple was an assistant varsity boys basketball coach at Girard High School (OH) from 2011-2013. He also has coaching experience at Ursuline High School (OH), Chaney High School (OH), and at the Youngstown’s YMCA.

As a player, Whipple was a three-time NAIA Division II All-American at Point Park University where he played from 2005-08.
