2017-18 WINTER SEASON REVIEWS

SWIMMING & DIVING: The Westminster men’s swimming & diving team captured its fourth consecutive Presidents’ Athletic Conference (PAC) Championship, while the women’s team finished third. A total of 25 Titans were named All-PAC between both teams (the men’s team had a conference-best 15). Titan freshman diver Connor May earned All-America honors at the NCAA Championships. May finished 5th in the 3-Meter dive (502.10) and 14th in the 1-Meter dive (425.30), earning All-American status in both events. May also earned the PAC Male Diver of the Year, the first award of this kind in school history. May shattered the record books at the PACs, breaking school records in all four diving events. May and freshman Zack Thomas both qualified for NCAA Regionals. May and Thomas joined senior Mitch Stahara, junior David Peffer, and sophomores Mathew Bogen, Aaron Dunlany, and Matt Kwalick as All-PAC First Team honorees. Junior Michael Spencer, Peffer, Kwalick, and Stahara broke the 400-yard freestyle relay record with a time of 3:06.32 at the PAC Championships, while Kwalick, Peffer, Stahara, and Dunlany broke the 800-yard freestyle relay record (6:50.98). Senior Tyler Sheets was named on the PAC Sportsmanship Team. The Titans finished 8-1 overall and 4-0 in the PAC in dual meets. For the women’s team, sophomore Kaitlyn Fast was named the PAC Female Diver of the Year, the first in school history. Fast broke three of her four school records at the PAC Championships and qualified for NCAA Regionals for the second consecutive season. Fast and first-year Nyna Hess earned All-PAC First Team honors. Hess notched four first-place victories and one second-place mark at the conference championships. Senior Megan Douds, who collected 13 overall first-place finishes during the regular season, earned a spot on the All-PAC Second Team. Sophomore Holly Angelo was named on the PAC Sportsmanship Team. Westminster finished 4-5 overall and 2-2 in the conference in dual meets. The Titans were led by second-year Head Coach Pat Smith. Assistant Coach Heath Calhoun was named the PAC Male and Female Diving Coach of the Year.

INDOOR TRACK & FIELD: The Westminster women’s track & field team placed second (only four points behind first-place) at the PAC Indoor Championships, while the men’s team finished eighth. Titan senior Hailey Hall won the pole vault, the first conference title of her career, with an indoor personal-best jump of 12’4.75” (3.78m). Hall went on and earned All-America status at the 2018 NCAA Division III Indoor Track & Field Championships. Also at the PACs, Titan first-year Erin Ward won the 800-meter run, the first Titan (male or female) to win the event at the Indoor Championships, with a personal-best time of 2:24.19. Westminster swept the top three spots in the pole vault as first-year Julia Strobel placed second with a personal-record of 10 feet, eight inches (3.25m), followed by junior Jamie Thompson in third (10’3.05m). Senior Katelynn Morrell finished second in the 3,000-meter run with a school-record time of 10:37.61, breaking her own record that she set early in the year by more than twenty seconds (10:58.26). Senior Joshua McFall placed eighth in the 800, while breaking a 39-year old school record previously held by Steve Malliard in 1979 (2:01.26), with a time of 2:00.50. Westminster was under the tutelage of 11th-year Head Coach Tim McNeil ‘96.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL: The Westminster women’s basketball team, under the guidance of 16th-year Head Coach Rosanne Scott, qualified for the PAC Championship Tournament for the second-straight year. Sophomore Emily Fromknecht earned All-PAC Honorable Mention, while senior Kristine Fromknecht was named on the PAC Sportsmanship Team for the Titans (7-19, 3-15 PAC). E. Fromknecht finished in the top 15 in the PAC in multiple categories, including 15th in points per game (11.2), ninth in rebounds per game (6.7), 12th in field goal percentage (.437), 11th in free throw percentage (.756), and first in total blocks with 49. E. Fromknecht now has 81 total blocks in her career, a number good for third all-time in school history. She is one shy of tying second all-time (Colleen Dion, 82) and just 12 shy from tying first all-time (Erica Tallo, 93). K. Fromknecht finished 10th in the PAC in rebounds per game with 6.5, while also finishing first on the team in steals with 35.

MEN’S BASKETBALL: The Titan men’s basketball team, under sixth-year Head Coach Kevin Siroki ‘93, finished the season 19-9 (12-6 PAC), the most wins since the 2000-01 season. Westminster made it to the PAC Championship Tournament Semifinals for the second time in three seasons. The Titans also qualified for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championship Tournament for the second-straight year. Seniors Deontay Scott and Jarret Vrabel, along with sophomore Cameron Kane-Johnson each earned All-PAC Second Team honors. Vrabel also earned a spot on the PAC Sportmanship Team. Scott earned his 1,000th-career point, becoming the 38th Titan in school history to achieve the milestone. Scott joined three other Titans (Mike Douds 1989-91, Lou Skurcenski 1960-64, and Rich Kunselman 1983-87) to reach 1,000 career points and 800 career rebounds. Scott finished his career with 866 rebounds and 1,235 points. Those numbers stand fourth and 20th in their respective categories in Westminster history. Vrabel also surpassed 1,000 points and accompanied Mike Douds (1989-91) as the only Titans to achieve 1,000 career points and 100 career blocks. Vrabel’s 105 blocks are good for second all-time and his 1,057 points are good for 33rd-best in school history. Kane-Johnson finished the season posting 15.7 points per game, a number good for first on the team and fifth in the PAC. Kane-Johnson scored a season total of 440 points, the most by a Titan in a single season since Ryne Murray in the 2008-09 season (545 points). Kane-Johnson converted 71 three-pointers, finishing first on the team and second in the conference in that respective category.
Titan pole vaulter Hailey Hall earned All-American status at the 2018 NCAA Division III Indoor Track & Field Championships. Hall finished eighth of out a field of 17 vaulters with a jump of 12 feet, 3.5 inches (3.75m) for the first All-American honor of her career.

Hall qualified for Nationals with a mark of 12 feet, 6¼ inches (3.82m). Hall achieved that personal-best mark at the Polar Bear Final Qualifier.

This was the second time Hall has qualified for Nationals, the first for Indoor. Last year in Outdoors, Hall placed 15th with a jump of 12 feet, 1.5 inches (3.70m).

Westminster freshman diver Connor May earned All-America status at the 2018 NCAA Division III Swimming & Diving Championships. He placed fifth on the three-meter board (502.10 pts.) and 14th in the 1-meter dive (425.30 pts.), earning All-America status in both events. In the three-meter, May was one of just two freshmen to compete in the championship final.

May, the first-ever Westminster diver to qualify for Nationals, clinched an automatic berth for the Championships after winning the three-meter event at Regionals.
IN MEMORIAM – REMEMBERING THE TITANS

Legendary Westminster College coach and former Titan basketball standout Ron Galbreath passed away on Saturday, Dec. 9.

As a player for the Titans, Galbreath was a two-time All-American under legendary Westminster basketball coach C.G. “Buzz” Ridl. The 1962 Westminster graduate later went on to become the head coach of the Titans for 25 seasons, retiring as the school’s all-time winningest men’s basketball coach in 1997. During his playing days at Westminster, Galbreath earned All-America honors in 1961 and 1962. He is one of 15 All-Americans and one of five multiple All-Americans in Westminster history. His 1,586 career points at Westminster ranks fourth all-time. Galbreath averaged 21.7 points per game in 1961 and scored 607 points that season, ranking fifth- and third-best, respectively, in Westminster history. He helped Westminster beat the likes of the University of Pittsburgh and Duquesne University to make it to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) National Tournament all four seasons. As a coach for the Titans, Galbreath compiled a 448-206 (.686) record. Eighteen of Galbreath’s 25 Westminster teams qualified for postseason play with 11 reaching either the NAIA or conference finals. His teams won six NAIA district titles and reached the NAIA tournament three times - 1982, 1994, and 1996. At the time of Westminster’s move from the NAIA to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in 1998, Westminster was the all-time winningest men’s basketball program in NAIA history.

In total, Galbreath compiled a record of 634-192 (.768) as men’s basketball coach at Westminster and Clarion University and women’s coach at Geneva College for six seasons. He totaled 14 20-win seasons and his teams finished .500 or better 32 times. Galbreath coached five All-Americans, including four at Westminster, and 21 1,000-point scorers.

Galbreath was inducted into numerous Hall of Fames, including the Pittsburgh Basketball Club Hall of Fame, the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, the Lawrence County Historical Society Sports Hall of Fame, and the Titan Sports Hall of Fame. He was also named the Western Pennsylvania Sportsperson of the Year in 2016.

Dick Bestwick passed away on Jan. 4, 2018 at 87 in Athens, Ga.. Bestwick was a line coach for the Westminster football team during the 1963 and 1964 seasons, while serving as an assistant coach for the track & field team and was responsible for setting up and coaching wrestling - a new sport added as a varsity sport. During Bestwick’s time with the Titan football team, Westminster won two West Penn Conference Championships, in addition to a District 30 NAIA and Tri-State Small College Championships. In 1964, the Titans went 8-0 on the season, the first perfect season since 1956 and fourth in school’s history at the time.
Dear Friends of Titan Athletics,

It’s early April as I write this note and the spring sports season is in full swing. In a matter of weeks our teams will all be in the stretch drive of their season and preparing for post-season championship events. I hope you might take the opportunity to see some of our Titan teams in action this spring.

Early April is also the time each year for recognition of NCAA Division III Week. There are several activities planned for the week in celebration of our student-athletes. The dates for NCAA Division III Week this year are April 2-8.

Speaking of dates, here are a few “save the dates” that you might be interested in putting on your calendar:

- May 6 – The 15th annual WESPY awards will be presented in Orr Auditorium. This event is organized by the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and is open to all fans and supporters of Titan athletics.

- July 30 – The 40th annual TTO Buzz Ridl Golf Classic will be held at the New Castle Country Club. Registration information will be included in the next TTO newsletter as will also soon be available online at www.westminster.edu/athletics.

- October 13 – Homecoming 2018 will be celebrated on this date.

Please check the next edition of the TTO newsletter as that will include the date for the induction of the 2018 Titan Sports Hall of Fame class. Speaking of the Hall of Fame, I am pleased to note that TTO Executive Committee member Lou Perrotta ’94 is scheduled to be inducted into the Lawrence County Sports Hall of Fame on April 29. Two other notable Titan alums will also be inducted, Denny Flora ’00 and Jessica Cooper Smith ’08.

I would be remiss not to note with sadness the passing of Titan basketball legend Rob Galbreath on December 9, 2017, as noted elsewhere in this newsletter. Both as an All-American on the hardcourt for the Titans and as a long-time and highly successful coach, Ron was known and remembered fondly by many. And, less than a month later, we learned of the passing of former Titan assistant football coach Dick Bestwick on January 4, 2018. Coach Bestwick had a long and notable career in coaching and athletics administration. I have had the pleasure of getting to know many Titan alums whose lives were impacted by these two men.

Please know that plans and work continue on renovations and upgrades to our athletics facilities. This work stems from a study of an athletics facilities master plan that was initiated by the TTO Executive Committee that subsequently gained support from the College Board of Trustees through strong effort of Board of Trustees Athletic Advisory Committee Chair Gary Brown ’71. We are excited that President Richardson and her Leadership Team have noted to the Board and other constituencies on and off campus the importance of improved and new athletics facilities relative to athletic recruitment and retention and overall College enrollment, and have included the need for this work in the strategic planning for the College’s future.

As April also signals each year the final push in the recruiting process to attract future Titan student-athletes, please know that your financial support of Titan athletics through the TTO always helps make a difference in recruitment efforts. Thank you again for your ongoing support.

Sincerely,

Jim Dafler

Director of Athletics

Providing support for Westminster’s athletic programs is the Towering Titan Organization (TTO), formed in 1976 around a core of devoted, loyal and intensely interested alumni, parents and friends. The organization purposes itself to help maintain, improve and endow Westminster College’s athletic programs. Over $4 million in gifts have been contributed to the Towering Titan Fund since its inception.

Each gift designated for a varsity sport program will be distributed as follows: 90% goes directly to the sport to be used for program enhancements; 5% goes to a fund supporting TTO operations and promotions; and the remaining 5% goes to the TTO Endowment Fund or to the All-Titan Endowment Fund. Gifts designated for football or men’s basketball go to the TTO Endowment Fund and gifts designated to all other varsity sports go to the All-Titan Endowment Fund.

Qualifying gifts are also recognized through membership in Westminster’s Giving Clubs. For more information or to join the Towering Titans, contact Westminster College Director of Athletics Jim Dafler at 724-946-7313.
